Ages: The minimum age for the Men's Advance is 14.

Shooting: Bring your own guns, ammo, bows, and arrows (limited to shotguns, pistols, and archery).

Dress: This meeting is less formal than a regular church service, and has more of a "camp" feel. There is no official dress code, but most men will be wearing blue jeans or khaki pants with a collared shirt—basically "business casual."

Registration: We need you to submit registration online by April 1st. One person should submit the online registration for your whole church group. If you want to register, make sure you have indicated that to your pastor or whoever is leading your group prior to the time that they submit online registration. There is no cost to attend the Men's Advance, although there will a free-will offering during the services.

Hotels: Hotel rooms are available, first-come first-serve, for Friday night of Men's Advance. Rooms are available at the AmericInn and the AmeriVu hotels in Crookston. Room cost for pastors will be covered by Bible Baptist Church, but all other rooms will need to be paid for by attendees. Hotel reservations must be made by individuals or by the group leader. More specific instructions on how to reserve your room will be sent to you upon your group reservation. So the sooner you register, the sooner you'll be able to reserve rooms.
